

Signatures

POSITIVE

The Youth Offer is composed of seven signatures, one for each of the main programmes for young people in the Parliament. They have been designed to respect the EP brand architecture whilst also containing a dynamic, youthful element that signals they are within the family of the Offer.

These signatures are made up of three different elements: the European Parliament mute logo and the name of the programme separated by a vertical yellow line.

